The News.

We learn from Washington, that the nomination of Mr. Cook, as Postmaster at Chicago, which was sent in by President BUCHANAN as a special affront to Senator DOUGLAS, still "hangs fire" in the Senate. It is an appointment "not fit to be made," but party discipline may carry it through. The House of Representatives is discussing the subject of raising Volunteer Regiments for service in Utah.

We have reports of further disturbances in Kansas; the Judges and Clerks, who aided in the election frauds of January 4th, having been maltreated by some of the People whose rights they trampled upon.

The Turkish Admiral, so long expected, has arrived in New York, and was received with all the honors, yesterday, by the city authorities.

Destructive fires occurred yesterday at Troy, New York, and Elyria, Ohio.

Very little of interest transpired in the Legislature, yesterday. It is stated that ex-Governor BARSTOW, who has been absent from the State for several weeks, is on his way back to Madison, to answer the charges which have been made against him.

The New York Produce Market continues steady, but quiet. Prices have declined here slightly from the high rates of Friday and Saturday. The New York Money Market is very easy and abundantly supplied. Here, there is a great lack of currency, but exchange in the East is falling. It was selling yesterday at 2 per cent, and will soon get down to 1 per cent.

Our local news is of more than usual interest, this morning. A murderous assault was committed on one of our City Policemen, during Monday night, and he will, it is feared, die of his wounds. His assailant, who was promptly arrested and put in jail, committed suicide in his cell yesterday afternoon.

The near approach of our Charter Election is made manifest by the number of announcements of candidates for City Offices, and the calls for preliminary meetings in the different Wards.

The weather, yesterday, was exceedingly bright and genial. The approach of Spring is as gentle as could be wished.

A CARD.

MILWAUKEE, March 7, '58.

MR. EDITOR:—Allow me through your columns to express my feelings in regard to our old Chief Engineer, JOHN S. FILLMORE. I had been destitute for months of the necessaries of life, and unable to work on account of my leg.—I had applied for assistance in various quarters, and, being an old fireman, had supposed I was entitled to relief from the Fire Department fund; but found they could not, consistently with their rules, aid me. I then applied for aid by contribution. As soon as our old Chief heard of it, he stepped forward, as he always has done when a Fireman is in trouble, and provided for me at the Sister's Hospital, where I am now, with every prospect of being cured. He has proved, when out of service, the same untiring friend of the members of the Fire Department that he was when Chief Engineer. He would never see a Fireman suffer, and fearlessly maintained their rights and attended to their wants, both before the citizens and the Common Council.

JOHN JERGER.

CHICAGO CHARTER ELECTION.—The Chicago papers of yesterday contain the official returns of their late election. The Republican triumph is even more decisive than at first reported. The majority for JOHN C. HAINES, Republican candidate for Mayor, is 1161, against 1121 for "Long John," last year, and 586 for DYER, Democrat, the year before. All the other Republican City Officers are elected by majorities ranging from 1,000 to 1,600. The Common Council is Republican 2 to 1.

The Fight over Postmaster Cook.

Correspondence of the Evening Post.

WASHINGTON March 5, 1858.

The fight in the Executive Session over Cook's appointment as Postmaster of Chicago, was resumed in the Senate last evening, and resulted in giving Douglas one of his greatest triumphs.—He offered a resolution calling upon the Treasury and Post Office Departments for certain correspondence which embraces the proofs of the charges brought against Cook. Fitch of Indiana made a characteristic speech, but not so bitter as the day before, when Mr. Douglas flayed him.—He opposed the adoption of the resolution. He is rather in favor of strangling investigation into frauds of all kinds, just now. He was several times put right by Mr. Douglas, in matters of fact. On one occasion, he made the following eloquent outburst: "I will not be interrupted any more I dislike this bantamcock style of interference." After a bitter opposition to the resolution from Senators Slidell, Brown, Mason and others, the resolution was laid on the table. At this point, Mr. Hunter, of Virginia, said: "We must investigate this matter." "Yes," "Yes," responded Pugh and Clay. These demonstrations of yielding to the Illinois Senator created an excitement such as has been seldom witnessed. Senators Slidell, Brown and others sprang to the seat of Hunter, the former exclaiming, "We have had enough of this; don't revive it."

Senator Broderick, taking advantage of the attempts made to overawe Hunter, obtained the floor, and delivered a lecture to the Democracy which they will not very soon forget. He said he was surprised to see Senators controlled in their action on a grave question by bitter spite against a Senator whose life had been devoted to the great interests of the Democratic party. A man is nominated for a highly responsible place. A Senator rises in his place and utters charges against him, showing him to be dishonest, and therefore unfit for the place. He points the Senate to the place where the testimony is recorded, and moved a resolution, the tendency of which is to procure said testimony; and in the face of all this, Senators say, "We have had enough of this; we want no investigation!" Mr. Broderick characterized the proceeding as dishonorable and disgraceful.

The vote laying the resolution on the table was reconsidered, and the testimony was ordered.

Illness of Senator Davis.

From the New York Tribune.

WASHINGTON March 6, 1858.

The Kansas debate in the Senate will probably consume most of the month, as thirty elaborate speeches at least are in preparation.

His physicians think that Mr. Jefferson Davis can hardly resume active duty before two months hence. He is now confined to a dark room, under a severe regimen.

Three Democrats from Pennsylvania are halting between two courses. On the one side are expected favors from the Administration—on the other are desired commitals from the Anti-Lecompton side in their favor to overbalance the opposition of the party in their Congressional Districts. They are considered lost to our side.

Republican Victory.

BANGOR, Me., March 8.

At our Municipal Election to-day, Hollis Boorman, Republican, was elected Mayor, receiving 1170 votes against 828 for Hatch the citizens' candidate. Republicans also elected a large majority of the City Council.

TERRIBLE AFFAIR.

ATTEMPTED MURDER, AND SUICIDE OF THE MURDERER.—Below we give an account of a murderous assault, committed upon Policeman Bingenheimer, in the Second Ward, yesterday morning, by a private watchman, named Peter Conrad.—After the annexed paragraph had been written, we learned that Conrad had hung himself in jail, between four and five o'clock in the afternoon. It was reported that some of his family had the small pox, and he was consequently shut up in a cell alone, while a change of clothes were being prepared for him, before allowing him to go among the others prisoners. While Mr. Wesson, the jail keeper, was out procuring a suit of clothes for him, he hung himself with his neck kerchief from the door of the cell, in which he was confined. The assistant jail keeper, came to the cell a few minutes after the deed was committed, so he thinks—and cut him down, but life soon became extinct. Conrad was a German, and we should judge about 45 years of age. He leaves a wife and child unprovided for.

Last evening, we were sorry to learn that Bingenheimer was much worse, and it was feared he could not live. He was unable to speak, and the physicians who were attending him, had little hopes of his recovery. He, also, has a wife and family. Altogether, it is a terrible affair.

BRUTAL ASSAULT UPON A POLICEMAN—SUPPOSED ATTEMPT TO MURDER.—A most outrageous and assassin-like assault was committed upon one of the Second Ward night police, yesterday morning, by a private watchman named Peter Conrad. The circumstances, as we learn them from the police, are these:—There are two night police in the Second Ward—Bingenheimer and Schonkel. At about two o'clock yesterday morning, they parted to go in different directions through the ward. When near the depot of the La Crosse Railroad, on 3d street, Bingenheimer noticed a man coming towards him, whom he recognized as a private watchman, employed by some of the citizens in that neighborhood. The watchman stopped, when the policeman turned round and looked towards him, and made a show to be going in some other direction. Bingenheimer did not pay any more attention to him, but walked down the street a short distance when he heard footsteps behind him, and looking around he saw Conrad quite close upon him with an uplifted club. Before Bingenheimer could ward off the attack, or get fairly round, the watchman struck him a tremendous blow upon the side of the head, which felled him to the sidewalk, and continued striking him after he had knocked him down. The policeman cried "murder!" with all the strength he had, and luckily a watchman who was about the depot, rushed upon Conrad while he was dealing unmerciful blows upon the prostrate policeman, and probably prevented his committing a murder. Bingenheimer was carried to his home in an almost insensible condition, with the blood oozing from his ears.

Medical aid was promptly called for, and everything that was possible done for him; but he was still in a very precarious situation yesterday afternoon. As soon as the matter became known to the city police, Conrad was arrested and lodged in jail to await the result of the policeman's injuries. The only reason that has been attributed as to the cause of the brutal assault, is a spite which Conrad had against the policeman for arresting him some time since for disorderly conduct. The former resisted and fought desperately, and in order to arrest him, the officer had to handle him pretty roughly.

It is thought that Conrad intended to murder the policeman, and from the manner in which the assault was made, the supposition is a very probable one.

Bingenheimer is one of the most quiet, inoffensive, and withal efficient policemen in the force. We trust his injuries may not prove fatal.

THE EMERALD GROVE "BAKER AND DEAN AFFAIR" A FICTION.—A short time ago we copied a story from the Janesville Standard, which has since gone the rounds of the papers, to the effect that a beautiful and accomplished young lady, the daughter of an aristocratic Director of the Suffolk Bank, of Boston, had been spending a few months with her friends at Emerald Grove.—While there she fell in love with a burly son of the Emerald Isle, and an elopement of course was the consequence. Our readers will remember how prettily the story wound up, leaving the twain enjoying love in a cottage, where, said the Standard, "although not surrounded by the refinements and luxuries which adorn the mansion of the bride's father, they rejoice that love will sometimes o'erleap the bounds of prejudice and bring the extremes of society into matrimonial embraces."

This is all very beautiful, sentimental, and romantic. It lacks however, an essential quality to make it complete—that is truth. The Boston Traveller of a recent date contains the following paragraph about the affair, under the head of "Fictions."

"The story which has been the rounds of the papers relative to the elopement of the daughter of a director of the Suffolk Bank, in or to Wisconsin, is false, so far at least as concerns the family of any director of the Suffolk, or any other Boston Bank."

The probability is, that our Janesville local friend, was hard up for an "item," and fell back upon his imagination; and for lack of something better, served up a nice little love story for the edification of his readers, the facts having been got up for the occasion.

DONATION TO THE MILWAUKEE UNION RELIEF ASSOCIATION.—The Executive Board of this Association take pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of $25 from the Ladies, by the hands of Mr. Meyer Friend, it being a part of the proceeds of the Ball at Treat's Hall, Feb. 27th.

J. B. JUDSON, Sec'y.

MORE CANDIDATES FOR CITY OFFICE.—FREDERICK KESSLER and TIMOTHY O'BRIEN announce themselves, through the columns of the News, as candidates for City Marshal, at the ensuing Charter election. CHARLES WINKLER avails himself of the same medium to state that he is a candidate for City Treasurer.

A Police Case.

The City of Milwaukee against John Dolan and John Jennings.

This much talked of long and protracted case came on in order this morning before the Police Justice. Several witnesses were called on various points, and the current of the testimony, particularly that of Andrew McCormick and Thomas Cunningham, showed that the defendants were both in the new beer saloon of Mr. McCormick, on Main street, on the evening in question, each at first in different parts of the room and in different companies, viz: Dolan in the back part, and Jennings in front. That as Dolan and his company were coming out, Jennings advanced to him and said he would lick him before he should leave the house; and at the same time raised his hand as if in an attitude to strike, on which Dolan instantly struck Jennings a heavy blow in the face. The persons present were surprised, and each interfered for peace, and separated the parties. Mr. McCormick, who was also present, expressed great surprise, and requested Mr. Dolan to go home, who immediately withdrew, and Mr. McCormick then found it necessary to hold Jennings for some minutes. Jennings soon made his way out, and ran after Dolan, who had gone about three blocks distance, and on reaching Dolan, took hold of and pushed him into a window, and the parties then fell on the side walk, and struggled and pounded there the best they could for a few moments, when they were parted; and in a few minutes after, the obiquotous police came along and arrested both the parties.

It was urged strongly by counsel, on behalf of Dolan, that he was not guilty of any disorder—that the first blow struck in the saloon by him, was in self defence, always justifiable when the force was not too violent; and that all his subsequent conduct also proved him to have been acting only on the defensive. But the Court, in reply, remarked that Dolan showed a too great willingness to fight, and not rely on the law for his protection, and fined each of the parties $10 and costs, a decision which surprised most of the audience under the testimony, Dolan showing that he only acted on the defensive.

A CARD.

MILWAUKEE, March 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Daily Sentinel:—

SIR:—Your report of the proceedings of the Anti-Lecompton Meeting connects my name with the Committee on Resolutions. Allow me to state, through your paper, that I neither took part in calling, nor assisted the said meeting, and that the use of my name in that connection was unauthorized. CHARLES QUENTIN.

POLICE COURT, YESTERDAY.—G. B. Nicks was fined $10 and costs, for being disorderly.

Julius Zimmerman was brought up on a charge of being disorderly, and discharged for want of prosecution.

John Dolan, and John Doe, were fined $10 each and costs, for being disorderly.

John Boylan was fined $1 for disorderly conduct.

Ludwig Kocher, charged with beating his wife—case continued to the 11th, for examination.

STILL ANOTHER ANTI-LECOMPTON PAPER.—We hear it reported that the Democratic Standard, published at Janesville, is to be removed to this city and be made the organ of the Anti Lecompton Democracy. The same rumor connects BARIAH BROWN, a veteran editor, though not now "in commission," with the management of the new paper. We should be glad to welcome our old friend and always political opponent, Mr. BROWN, back again to editorial life and labor.

THE MURDERER STAUB.—Albert Staub, the murderer of Lauerman at Blue Island, who was arrested in this city not long since, was arraigned in the Court of Common Pleas, before Judge Wilson, at Chicago, on Monday morning. The defendant plead not guilty, although he acknowledged his guilt of the crime when arrested here. The trial of the case was set down for yesterday. Messrs. Wilkinson, Monroe and Spencer are the Counsel for the defendant.

INSURANCE AGENCY.—Those of our readers, who may wish to obtain new policies of Insurance, or to renew old ones, are referred to the card of Messrs. PRICE & WHALINGS, in to-day's paper. These gentlemen are old, experienced, and reliable Agents, and represent substantial Companies. No one can well go amiss, who applies to them.

A CRAZY MAN IN THE STREETS.—An insane man named John Donovan, was found by the police, in the Third Ward, yesterday, talking very incoherently to a crowd of boys. They took him to the station house, where he continued his preaching all day. He was taken out to the poor house to be cared for. Donovan was formerly a sailor. He has a wife and family living in the Third Ward.

TAX-PAYERS! ATTENTION!—The attention of TAX PAYERS is especially commended to the call, in this morning's paper, for a meeting at Albany Hall, to-morrow (Thursday) evening. We have only time, now, to invoke a full and prompt attendance of all Tax-Payers, at the meeting in question; as it concerns every one of them.

To the Electors of Milwaukee.

THE UNDERSIGNED, a resident of Milwaukee for the past fourteen years, for eight years an active member of the Fire Department, and during the last four years connected with the Police and Constabulary of this city, respectfully offers his name to his fellow-citizens as a candidate for Marshal at the ensuing Charter Election.

I HEREBY ANNOUNCE MYSELF to my fellow-citizens of Milwaukee, as a candidate to the office of City Treasurer, and would respectfully solicit your suffrage at the coming Charter Election.

EMBEZZLEMENT BY A CLERK.—A young man in the employment of Messrs. Salmon & Booth, hat and fur dealers, named L. E. Hanson, we learned yesterday, with regret, has been embezzling from his employers a large amount of money. He had been suspected some time since, and upon being watched was detected in disposing of goods from the store and pocketing the funds. When it had been ascertained beyond doubt that he was robbing them, one of his employers confronted him and accused him of embezzling their property, when he confessed his guilt, but said he had taken but a trifling amount, for which he offered some paltry excuse, and taking the first opportunity that presented itself, he left the city. Chief of Police Beck was informed of the circumstances, and immediately started in pursuit of him.

Hanson is widely known in this city, and hitherto he has borne an excellent character. He won the confidence and friendship, not only of his employers, but also of his numerous acquaintances, many of whom will, no doubt, be astonished at this intelligence. It was at first supposed that he had taken but a trifling sum, but upon more close investigation, it has been ascertained that he has defrauded his employers out of at least a thousand dollars, and they are inclined to think a much larger sum. Hanson got into bad company of late, which was no doubt the cause of his downfall.

Important from Kansas.

ST. LOUIS, March 9.

The Republican learns that an attempt has been made to abduct the Judges of Election at Delaware crossing, to prevent them giving evidence to Denver, as requested by Calhoun. Isaac Marshall, one of the Judges, was shot in the head and killed. The Clerks of Shawnee Precinct, are preparing a certificate, under oath, stating that they gave the testimony they did before the Investigating Committee, under threats of death.

A letter from Fort Scott says that place has been taken by a company of Lane's men, who were robbing stores and stealing horses. No lives lost.

WASHINGTON, March 8.

The Senate was in Executive Session to day, two hours and a half, on the nomination of Mr. Cook, as Postmaster of Chicago. The debate was earnest and exciting, but no question was taken, in consequence of the absence of a quorum.

XXXVth Congress—First Session.

WASHINGTON, March 9.

The House resumed the consideration of Mr. Quitman's bill.

Mr. Faulkner, of Va., was opposed to sending volunteers to Utah, and believed that if they were placed at the disposal of the Executive, he would not find occasion to use them. He thought that the proposition for the employment of volunteers was dictated by outside pressure, rather than a conviction of sound policy.

SENATE—Mr. Mason, of Va., moved for the further consideration of the relief of Com. Jones. A discussion ensued.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 10

The "News" Warming up.

The News, having taken breath and counsel after its first onslaught upon the Democratic Anti-Lecompton meeting of Saturday, comes at this "factious" movement again, in yesterday's paper, and applies the official lash vigorously to those Democrats who took prominent part in it. It denounces the meeting as "a fraud and a cheat;" sympathizes deeply in the disappointment of Messrs. McGarry and Foote, to whose dulcet and persuasive accents, the multitude declined to listen; avers that those who signed the call "very generally opposed the Democratic ticket" "at the late election;" (!) indulges in a polite sneer at the "respectability" of the Chairman; and fires an indignant broadside at all of the speakers. The conclusion of the News is that the meeting, however strongly Anti-Lecompton, was certainly not Democratic; and it arrives at this result by a very simple process of reasoning, to wit: that as the Lecompton Villainy is the only recognized test of true Democracy, he is no true Democrat who is opposed to Lecompton. Q. E. D.

We are really concerned to see that the News takes this movement so much to heart. If it seems likely to make mischief, why not get up a counter-meeting to check the growing dissffection in the party? There are surely enough office-seekers and office-holders in Milwaukee to make a good show; and the knowledge that "Lecompton" is the party Shibboleth and the passport to Federal favor, will stimulate their efforts to get up a grand demonstration. By all means, let the News call a Lecompton meeting.

A Chart for Office-Seekers.

The Madison papers announce the safe return to that city of two distinguished politicians who have recently visited the political Mecca at Washington and paid their adoration to the Presidential relics which occupy the White House. These Democratic pilgrims are Mr. E. A. Calkins, editor of the Madison Argus, and Mr. J. N. Jones, the incumbent of the Madison Post Office. Their errand was much the same—Mr Jones desiring to keep in office and Mr. Calkins to get in—and their luck was not unlike; that is to say, Mr. Jones got the refusal and Mr. Calkins the promise, of the Madison Post Office.

Of course, Mr. Calkins returns with his faith confirmed, his zeal invigorated and his enthusiasm kindled, by his visit to the "National Democratic" shrine, and the familiar converse he held with the chief priest who ministers thereat.—The public will be abundantly satisfied of this when they peruse the following extracts from the leading article in the Argus of Saturday:

The Great Popular Reaction in Favor of Lecompton—Sober Second Thought—The Administration Vindicated.

On the first day of December last—before the assembling of Congress or the issue of the President's message—we took open, and decided grounds in favor of the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution. * * *

We were then alone among the Democratic press of the State, none other taking the same ground, some boldly opposing it, and some preserving a studied neutrality.

But the sober, second thought has prevailed. The Democratic party is rallying everywhere to the support of the administration; the wisdom of our great President is vindicated; Lecompton will pass Congress, and not a word of remonstrance will be heard throughout all the land.—The President remarked to us, during a recent visit to Washington, in conversation upon this subject—"The affairs of Kansas have too long occupied the attention of the people of the country—a peaceable and practicable solution is now offered; it will be accepted. In two months the whole matter will be settled; it will be settled in two days; it is, to all practicable intents settled already." Such was the opinion of the President on the day his special Lecompton message was sent to Congress; events, and the course of public opinion have fully sustained it.

Three months ago we stood alone in the Wisconsin press, advocating the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution.

To day a great majority of the Democratic newspapers of the State have adopted the views of the Administration; leading Democrats have abandoned the Anti-Lecompton position; many who bitterly denounced our course in December as dictated by the greed of an office seeker and calculated to ruin the Democratic party of the State, in March are anxious to forget, and especially to have us forgot, that they ever entertained a view of the subject different from our own; and to day, were the question proposed to a Mass Convention of the Democratic party—the President would be sustained two to one. We are satisfied with the result of our labors.

So, we think, the Argus editor should be, if it be true, as reported, that those 'labors' have won for him the Madison Post-Office. This certainly is no better than his services—if truly described by himself—fairly deserved. From a hopeless and feeble minority, the Lecompton wing of the Wisconsin Democracy has grown into a majority of "two to one"—at least, so says the editor of the Argus—and "alone he did it."—Who shall say that he has not abundantly earned his reward?

Other office-seekers and office-holders may profit by his example and steer by the Argus chart, if they desire to reach the haven where they would be. It is plain sailing into office under Mr. Buchanan. There need be no mistake about courses, no need of soundings, no fear of breakers. The office-seeking craft, big or little, has but to steer due South and straight for Lecompton, and blow high, blow low, come wind, come wrack, it will be sure to reach a snug berth in some Federal anchorage.

NEIGHBORLY AND GRATEFUL.—The animus of the News towards its new political confere, the Times, and the former "god of its idolatry," Stephen A. Douglas, is sufficiently illustrated by the following paragraph in yesterday's paper:

RATHER OMINOUS.—There is a fast nowa boy in town who sells more papers than any other two, simply by the extraordinary caption he gives to his headers. Yesterday he announced the sheet by crying—"Here you have the Milwaukee "Daily Times," with the latest news; arrival of the "Europa," and DEATH of Stephen A. Douglas." As the now paper only had its first issue, said to be a prospectus, or Douglas prospecting, Jerry was truly hard hearted to kill him in his birth. Truly it looks ominous for Douglas and the "Times."

Considering that the editor of the News is mainly indebted to the friendly efforts and influence of Stephen A. Douglas for the snug berth which he enjoys, this uncalled-for slur upon his late patron is scarcely in good taste. Still, it will no doubt be accounted acceptable service by the Federal Administration.

ADDRESSES ON SLAVERY.—We are requested to state that Mr. H. F. Douglas, a popular speaker, will deliver addresses on the subject of Slavery, at the times and places mentioned below:

Waukesha,	11th and 12th inst.
Palmyra,	13th and 14th "
Whitewater,	15th "
Milton,	16th "
Edgerton,	17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, inst.

☞ It is but courteous to remark, of the Daily Times, that it is projected as a Douglas organ. Anti Lecompton is its avowed specialty. We do not object to it. If the Republican party here can support a distinctive representative of that particular grade of "Republicanism," it is proper, of course, that they do it.—News.

The courtesy and propriety of setting down Anti Lecompton Democracy as only another grade of "Republicanism," and ruling out the Times as having no claims to Democratic support, must be apparent to all. The News seems to be excessively "leader-toad," on the subject.

The New York Lecompton Meeting a Failure.

☞ A vigorous attempt was made by the leaders of the Administration party of New York to obtain a public endorsement of the President's course on the Lecompton question, and a Lecompton meeting was called at Tammany Hall, but it proved to be up-hill work to get up any public enthusiasm in favor of the Swindle. The Courier thus speaks of the meeting:

The Lecompton Meeting at Tammany Hall last evening, was one of those quiet, amiable affairs, which is the surest indication that it was held in behalf of a sinking cause, sustained by a sinking party. The meeting was quite respectable in the character of those who attended, and nearly filled a hall capable of affording standing room to about 2,000 persons, while an entertaining lecture could scarcely have been listened to more decorously. But it was a meeting which must have made the heartburns of Tammany Hall recall have made the heartburns of Tammany Hall recall with a sigh those assemblages when rival cliques vied with each other in the loudness and frequency of their cheering. Tammany Hall is at last "respectable"—at least for the nonce—and pass.

There was a notable discrepancy in the positions assumed by the speakers. Mr. McLane freely confessed that if the allegations that the Lecompton Constitution be a fraud and a cheat, were sustained to this conviction, he would oppose the admission of Kansas under it. Messrs. Dix and Van Buren, admitting every allegation of fraud and violence to be true, would still admit Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution! How much more zealous is a new convert than an original adherent! Mr. Van Buren evidently felt his position to be an awkward one, for he devoted a great portion of his speech to bragging and to vulgar ridicule of a character too indelicate to be printed. The night was cool—a circumstance which rendered rather superfluous the coolness with which he read Senator Douglas, Governor Walker and their adherents, out of the Democratic party, because he suspected they wouldn't vote the "regular Democratic ticket!" It would not have been suspected that it is to him the Democrats are indebted for the only defeat they have sustained in a National contest since 1840.

LA CROSSE & MILWAUKEE R. R. CO.—The vacancy in the direction of this Company, occasioned by the retirement of J. B. Brewster, of New York is to be filled by the election of Mr. Wm. Watson of this city. The directors no longer employ financial agents at New York since July last. Money has been raised through agents in a way the present directors decline to follow.—No less than $2,000,000 of stock and bonds have been slaughtered by forced sales. As soon as the Eastern Directors, who nearly all reside in this city, discovered the mode of raising money, they resolved to remove the fiscal agency and the office to this city, where they can manage it themselves.

Judge Radcliff, we learn, has assumed the special charge of the finances, as one of the Directors. We learn that the floating debt, which was very troublesome, has been reduced to an extent to render it no longer so. Messrs. Clark, Perry and Luther, of the Board of Directors, have gone to Wisconsin to superintend and overlook the affairs of the Company on the line. The Road will be finished to La Crosse this year. The contractor is laying the iron at half a mile per day. The winter had been and is propitious to the work. The Board has cut down expenses in every possible way. They have made arrangements with all the Eastern roads, by which they now ticket—through from Boston and New York to St. Paul, Minnesota, over the La Crosse Road.—Albany Argus, March 8.

The travel over the La Crosse Road is increasing rapidly, as Spring advances. Yesterday, a number of passengers arrived in our city in three days from St. Paul, by way of the La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R. This is quick time for winter travel. When the Road is completed to La Crosse—as it will be within a twelve-month, it will be crowded with business the year round. It is destined, beyond all doubt, to be the great thoroughfare of the North-West.

EX-GOVERNOR BASHFORD.—A gentlemen in this city received a telegraphic dispatch from Ex-Gov. Bashford, on Saturday evening, announcing that he should leave New York for this city this morning. He will probably be here on Wednesday or Thursday next.—Madison Journal, Monday.

We are right glad to hear this. Let Ex-Gov. Bashford hasten to Madison, go before the Investigating Committee, and tell his story just as it is. Anything rather than attempt to evade the inquiry which the People, through their Representatives, have demanded. All sorts of rumors are in circulation at Madison, as to Gov. Bashford's complicity in the alleged Land Grant Corruption, and his refusal, or inability to account for last year's Contingent Fund. No doubt his evidence will put a different aspect upon the one, and the vouchers in his possession satisfactorily account for the other. Or if not, he will at least have made the best atonement in his power, to the party which elected him and to the State over whose destinies he presided for two years, by frankly telling the whole truth. Much may be forgiven to a man who confesses his errors; while but one judgment can be passed upon him who, having committed a grievous wrong, seeks ignoble safety in flight, and refuses alike redress or explanation.

THE NIAGARA RIVER—ITS VOLUME AND CAPACITY.—Messrs. Parkinson and Smith, civil engineers, have been engaged for a considerable time in surveys of the Niagara River at this locality. In the course of them they have carefully ascertained the area of cross-sections of the stream at ordinary stages of water, and at many different points. They have also determined the mean velocity of the current at these points.—From these data they have calculated the volume of water discharged through the channel in a given time, with the following results:

	Cubic ft.	Gallons.
Vol. water discharged per hour.	188,084,000	1,403,316,415
do do do minute,	3,134,100	23,446,340
do do do second,	52,240	390,752

They have also made an interesting comparison of these results with the contents of the water works reservoir. The capacity of the reservoir is 1,462,240 cubic feet; so that the volume of water passing in the river per minute is equal to two and one-fifth times the total capacity of the reservoir. Our supply of water is not likely to fail from a deficiency in the river.—Buf. Com.

SUCCESSFUL CONFIDENCE DODGE.—Casper Corn, a young man from Sauk County, Wisconsin, in passing through Chatham street, yesterday, was accosted by an individual of pleasing address, who wished more to loan him $85 to pay a bill, as he could not get change for a $100 bank note he then had in his hand. The bill was to be paid last in the neighborhood, and if Mr. Corn could accommodate him for the time being he could hold the $100 bank note as security. Corn, being good-natured and obliging, handed over the $85, all the money he had, (after paying his passage to California), and took the $100 bill, which proved to be one of the City Trust and Banking Company. The confidence operator gave Corn the dodge, and the latter, after waiting some time for his return, concluded he had been victimized, and repaired to the Mayor's office for redress. Officer Miller was sent out, but the sharper could not be found.—N. Y. Tribune.

FIRST JAIL BIRD.—Deputy Sheriff Lamoure dedicated our new jail last week by extending its hospitalities to a man by the name of Barlow, said to be a resident of Armenia in this county. We saw the fellow in his new situation. He is in comfortable quarters, and like Henry Clay's negroes, seems to be "contented and happy."—N. Lisbon Rep.

RESIGNATION OF MR. C. WEBB.—Mr. Wm. C. Webb of the Assembly sent in his resignation this afternoon.

The Assembly has taken a strange course in regard to his case, and, it seems to us an obvious duty which that body owes to itself and to the State, to make some direct and public expression of its judgment upon such conduct as that of which Mr. Webb has been convicted.—Madison Journal.

About the Democratic Meeting in Market Hall, Saturday night, March the 6th.

The so-called Democratic Mass Meeting, of last Saturday night, has, in my opinion, again, very clearly shown how little the first principles of true Democracy, which are at the same time the true principles of the Constitution and Government of the United States, are understood, and how badly they are perverted or misapplied, even by some of those men who pretend to advocate them and to have unflinchingly clung to the true Democratic party for a number of years. No wonder under these premises that the usual lot of false accusations and mean revilements, was again brought forth in said meeting against the Republican Party and its noble platform, which was said to be hostile to the inheritance of Republican freedom, to popular sovereignty and self-government, and that, in order to enlighten, by a new light, the people who sat in darkness and the shadow of death, one of the orators of the meeting even denounced the Republican party as the true author of the Lecompton Swindle, because good old Buck on the Presidential chair (poor innocent fellow) had been deluded and seduced by those "black Republicans" and their bad example, to forget his duties and pledges towards the National Democracy and to interfere with the rights of the People of Kansas.

Of the many wonderful and extraordinary babies with which the National Democracy, after having turned a harlot, has astonished the honest folks of this Union during the last few years, this new one is perhaps the most wonderful and extraordinary of all, and reminds us of the ancient sentence, "that there is every day something new coming out of Africa." Happily, this at least very frivolous accusation in the face of notorious facts, bears so clearly the stamp of ridicule, that it will not and cannot do harm of any amount, and so it deserves no other reply but the laughter excited by it even among the devoted hearers of the venerable gentleman, who repeated it about ten times with such unflinching seriousness. Besides this, I heard, again and again the old objection made to the Republican Party, that the same, by advancing and upholding rights belonging to the General Government and chiefly to Congress, to prohibit and exclude the evil of Slavery from the territories of the United States, intends to confer on this government a power in contradiction with the Constitution and freedom of the Union. This objection is, in my opinion, so fully refuted, that, I wonder, not only, that any acute and talented man dares to repeat it again and can do so even with sincerity, but even that any man of full age and sound mind can be deceived by so gross a delusion; and, nevertheless, every mention of it elicited signs of approval and applause from several parts of the audience there present. Therefore, it may not be quite useless, to point again to some truths, which, although being in themselves very clear and simple, and forming the fundamental principles of the Constitution of this great Union, and with some modifications also of the Constitutions in the several States composing the same, yet seem not to be fully understood by all the people to whom they are of such vital importance.

The basis of all our Republican institutions, according to the intention of the Fathers of American freedom, is the power of self-government, which gives the character of sovereignty to the legally pronounced will of the people or its surrogate, the majority. This means, not that the people itself is immediately to take care of every part and business of the public government, but it means that all public authority, as well the legislative, as the executive power and the right of investigation necessarily connected with both of them, are derived only from the people and to be exercised only for its benefit (the public welfare) and in its name. All public officers, as well of the Union as of every single State, are therefore, only to be considered as the commissioners, or administrators, or attorneys of the people, not its servants (for there ought not to be servants at all among a free people) but much less its masters or lords, howsoever elevated their position may be in other respects. This applies also to the power conferred upon the General Government by the Constitution over the territories of the United States. This power, as every other one belonging to the President and Congress, is exercised by them only for and in the name of the people, or in other words, by the people of the United States, through the President and the members of Congress, chosen by this people, as its instruments. As often, therefore, as the question arises, whether Congress have a right to exclude Slavery from the territories, it is not a question concerning a right of Congress against or over the people of the United States, or of Congress as a ruling, sovereign power in itself, over a part of this people, not at all merely a question between Congress and the people, as so-called democratic leaders, with allacious dialectics pretend, but it is a question of the limits of right between the people of the United States and the people of such territory, a mere question between people and people.

This was always the doctrine of the Fathers of this Republic, always the doctrine of true Democracy, and is now that of the Republican Party. And whosoever advances and supports another doctrine, under the pretext to fight for freedom, popular sovereignty, and self-government, is either incapable to see the truth, or is a shameless impostor, and so much more dangerous an enemy to true freedom the more talent he possesses and shows in other respects. Under the pretext, to combat for popular rights, he places himself from the beginning upon a platform, which implies a non-acknowledgment of the basis of these rights, because it excludes the sovereignty of the people as such, by attributing to Congress (an independent power, which indeed is derived only from the people and exercised by the same only through this Congress.

The clear and victorious reasons which vindicate the right of excluding slavery from any territory to the people of the United States, have already been fully discussed in the campaign previous to the last Presidential election. It has already been shown, that the doctrine of the Republican platform relating to this point, is the only one compatible with the spirit and letter of the Constitution, and the due regard to the welfare of this Union, as well as with the right-understood principle of self government of the people; that the adoption of this doctrine is imperatively demanded by all these considerations, and that the attempt to put the territories, in regard to the Slavery question, upon one line with the received States, contains the same fault, as to treat a child or growing youth like a man of fullage, and must provoke over this Union the greatest dangers and political storms, of which the past and present history of Kansas furnishes so warning an example. Therefore to tarry any longer here upon this subject would be like carrying owls to Athens.

The so-called Democratic Mass Meeting has not brought forth anything worthy and able to excite the least doubt against the position of the Republican platform concerning this subject, in any judicious person. But it necessarily has impressed the mind of every impartial observer with the conviction, that the democracy of this State is perfectly rotten, and that, also, this new movement within the party will scarcely produce any good and lasting effect upon the same, unless it serves to hasten the dissolution of this party, whose present position is scarcely better than a nuisance, as well to the people of this State, as to those of the United States. H.

THE MINNESOTA LOAN BILL.—The Minnesota Senate on the 3d inst., by a vote of 24 to 7, passed the bill providing for a loan of five millions of State bonds, in aid of various Rail Road enterprises in that embryo State. There seems to be no doubt that the bill will also pass the House and receive the signature of the Governor.

From Washington.

Special Despatch to the N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, March 8, 1858.

Senator Seward's speech attracted a audience, which at an early hour of the morning thronged all the galeries and lobbies with distinguished persons and ladies. The floor of the Senate was crowded with members of the House and of the diplomatic corps.

Mr Seward engaged attention fixedly throughout, and on no former occasion did the Southern side of the Chamber exhibit the same deference to the speaker and interest in what he was saying. Mr. Mason and others, who have heretofore affected indifference, and have usually withdrawn, sat, giving a most careful ear to every word, and making copious notes for future replies.

The speech is conceded on all hands to be a most masterly production, in its grasp and arrangement of the subject and in the superior skill with which its branches were treated. Mr. Seward has added a curb to his political stature.

The Select Committee of the House met to-night. All the members were present, including Mr. Letcher of Virginia. The Committee sat nearly three hours.

The first business was the presentation of Mr. Stephen's report on behalf of the majority, which occupied nearly three quarters of an hour in reading. He maintained the legality of the Lecompton Convention throughout, claiming that the election of delegates conformed to the requirements of the law, and that therefore the act of the Convention in framing the Constitution was binding upon the people. He contended that those who refused to vote were barred by their own act and could not complain. He reviewed Senator Douglas's Springfield speech and the letters of Gov. Walker and Sec. Stanton, with the view of demonstrating the inconsistency of their present and past positions. The report concluded by recommending the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution, purely and simply.

At the close of the report were presented a series of resolutions, covering the meagre information already obtained from the Department, probably with the design of making the record complete, as the facts were embodied in the report itself. Then a vote was taken on the report and resolutions, which were adopted by a vote of eight to seven.

CUBA AND THE UNITED STATES.—It is rumored in court circles, says the Washington correspondent of the New York Post, that the President is preparing a message on Cuban affairs. He is bent on carrying out the doctrines of the Ostend circular. It is said that he will charge upon Spain a series of supposed aggressions perpetrated upon the citizens of the United States by the authorities of Cuba, and recommend to Congress the appointment of a commission to negotiate with Spain for the purchase of that Island.

AN INDIAN ROASTED ALIVE.—An old half-breed Indian, says the New Lisbon Republic, known about the pineries as John E. Kake, stopped last Thursday evening at a Winnebago wigwam near Germantown in this county. Unfortunately some human fiend had furnished the company with a jug of liquor, and they were all in a state of beastly intoxication, and old John soon imbibed to that extent that he became entirely insensible, and was laid down by his companions so near a large blazing fire that before noticed by the company, he was burned to an entire crisp. We saw his remains next morning, his body was literally charred to a coal.

Manitou City Town and Land Company.

A. B. Paul, one of the proprietors, is now in this city for the purpose of securing machinery for mills, &c. All persons contemplating moving West early in the coming season, are cordially invited to call and examine our plans, maps, &c., at the American House. A good opportunity is also offered to mechanics and tradesmen of all kinds, to secure—"even with limited means"—good homes in one of the richest valleys of the Northwest.

See pamphlet containing sketch, &c., of country adjacent, and plan of the proprietors in building up an important point on the Sioux River, Iowa. We want actual settlers. Call and see us and talk the matter over. dec23odtf

PROF. DE GRAFF'S ELECTRIC OIL.—Boy taken of his crutches in twenty minutes:

ALEXANDRIA, VA., July 14, 1856.

Prof. De Graff.—Dear Sir.—My son had his foot badly cut and swollen from stepping on a nail in it, and was totally unable to walk without a crutch, when, by one application of your Electric Oil, he was immediately cured, and able to work at his trade in 20 minutes. I believe it has saved from being lame thereby. I recommend your Oil to the afflicted. Yours, truly,

JOHN ASNOLD, Hatter.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and all pains overcome by this great Oil. Beware of counterfeits. Be sure to get DeGraff's Electric Oil.

WOOD'S RESTORATIVE.—Of all the restoratives for the hair that have been invented, Wood's, pre-eminently claims the first place. It will certainly restore the natural color of the hair, if the directions are followed for a sufficient length of time. It has also produced astonishing effects in bringing out a growth of hair, where the head had been previously bald. Wood does not pretend that it will do this in all cases; and we think its candor is a good recommendation of the virtues which its restoratives fully possess. If the roots of the hair are destroyed, no human power can make them grow again; but where there is any vitality left in the root, the restorative will soon renew the hair in all its original vigor. It has done this repeatedly, where all other remedies had failed. It is, therefore, worthwhile in all cases to make the experiment. For clearing the head of dandruff, and for cleansing and a nourishing the hair, it has no rival.—Western Patriot.

Tastings of Punch.

Here is a most impolite bit at John Bull's German visitors:
SINGULAR DISPROPORTION.—In the bill of one of the German princes stopping at Panton's Hotel, there were these two disproportionate items:

	£. s. d.
Cigs, tobacco, &c., &c.	9 15 6
Washing	0 18 7
Balance (in favor of smoking)	2 5 11

The Prince was in the hotel exactly nine days.
Respecting a new crinoline petticoat, called La Grimaldine de Leviathan, said to be just invented at Paris, Punch remarks:
In the meantime, crowds of elegantly dressed ladies stop daily in the Rue de la Paix outside the extensive magasin, where this gigantic specimen of the millinery art is moored, and give audible expression to their feelings of wonder and delight. The calculation has been made by an employe in the Bureau des Longitudes that as much steel has been used in the construction of this monster crinoline as would suffice to go 549 times round the waist of Ronconi! A rumor has reached us, to which we are only too glad, owing to the graceful compliment involved, to give the full benefit of our illimitable publicity, that Signor Mario will be waited upon by a deputation of directrices of some of the largest Jupon houses in Paris, and implored in the sweetest of terms to undertake the management of the launch of this female Leviathan, as it said that he has had the greatest practice of any man in the day in moving the large masses of ladies!
THE AMERICAN HORSE TAMER.—The American, John S. Rarey, has been exhibiting before British royalty his power over untrained and vicious horses. He was left alone with each animal for a short time, and then the creature was found to be perfectly docile. His secret was communicated, in confidence, to Sir Richard Airey, who in a similar confidence has communicated it to Mr. Punch. Mr. Rarey, it seems, whispers to the horse, and what he says is—"If you don't obey, old hoss, I guess I'll read you something out of the Morning Star." And the horse obeys, partly in terror, partly to show that he has not the tastes of a donkey.
A CORRECT MISNOMER.—We know an old lady, who, when she alludes to the leader of the Mormons, always calls him—either unintentionally or else by a curious jumble of ideas—"Mr. Big-amy Young."
A CURIOUS WEDDING.—Says the New York correspondent of the Charleston Courier:
An interesting wedding took place a few days since, between a Mr. Henry B. Melville and Mrs. Sarah K. Seymour. The parties have both been married before, and each have a family of seven children—those of the gentleman comprising six daughters and a son, and those of the lady six sons and a daughter. The sons acted on the occasion as groomsmen to their future father, and the daughters as bridesmaids to their future mother. The whole fourteen children dressed alike, according to their sex, entered the church arm in arm, and ranged themselves on either side, of their parents, who are both remarkably handsome, and looked superb. The bride is wealthy, and was richly dressed in a pearl-colored moire antique, with costly laces, and diamond breach and bracelet.
☞ An elderly lady deposited a short time since in the Lowell Savings' Bank a gold ten-dollar piece, of the United States coinage of 1801, which she has kept in her possession as a pocket piece, so long that, if it had been invested during that time it would, at the ordinary rate of interest, have brought her, up to the present time, over one hundred and sixty dollars. The coin was very rare and fair, and as little worn, and as fresh as when it came out of the mint.
"THE LOLA MONTEZ."—The name of the clipper schooner now being constructed by Mr. Eben Manson, of Newburyport, Mass., for Mr. Rufus S. Griffith, is named the "Lola Montez." Her bow will be ornamented with a full length figure of this somewhat celebrated woman. It's lucky it is not a steamer—Lola is so accustomed to blowing up people.
